Jim,

I looked through the document and we don't mention Exelon or the 401 certification in the draft RFP. We do mention other funding sources that would include Exelon as part of Activity 2 (pages 9-10):

This organization will be the authority to leverage, receive, manage, and disseminate public, nonprofit foundation and private funds for the Conowingo. This regional authority would be concerned with the development, funding and implementation of the Conowingo WIP. This work will be carried out in consultation with the Steering Committee.

The legal assessment should address opportunities and barriers to linking public, private, and nonprofit investment with water quality restoration practices and activities.

Thanks,
Lucinda

Jim-
I would recommend we don't reference the MD 401 Cert in the RFP given the uncertainty as the cert will likely be litigated by Exelon as well as the 2025 date makes it less meaningful in the coming years. Right now, we need to Conowingo WIP and the financing plans written without a specific accounting of Exelon's contributions as we can't bank on those for now.

Are you good with Lucinda working with James to send the draft RFP up to Philadelphia to start the grants and legal reviews?

Thanks, Rich

Thanks L! Do we need to incorporate (even by reference) anything from the MD 401 Cert into this RFP? Thanks Jim

Jim/Bill:

Attached please find the revised draft Conowingo RFP that reduces the minimum funding level to $500K (further changes were made to the funding levels under each activity to reflect this decrease) and adds some language under the tracking and reporting activity about avoiding overlap with other programs and funding sources.

Please let me know if you have any other changes/questions; otherwise, this is good to go for the grants and legal review.

Thanks,
Lucinda

Importance: High

Hi everyone,

Attached please find the latest revised version of the draft Conowingo RFP, reflecting feedback and edits from CBPO, Jim Gebhardt from HQ, and Kelly Gable.

I'm not sure if further edits are needed based on Julie's email from earlier today but I wanted to be sure you all had the most recent copy.

If no further questions or changes, this should be ready for transmission to Philly for the grants and legal review.

Thanks,
Lucinda
